A LOOK AT #5 UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The Women of Troy enter the NCAA Tournament with a 20-3 record. This is the 21st consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament for USC and 30th overall. The Women of Troy have a 59-28 record in NCAA Tournament play and have captured seven national championships in all. In the Pac-12 Doubles Championship, #4 Kaitlyn Christian and Sabrina Santamaria, won the title by defeating Stanford's Mallory Burdette and Nicole Gibbs. USC has now won the conference doubles title in three of the last five years. Four student-athletes on USC's roster are in the Campbell/ITA National rankings including: freshman Zoe Scandalis (13), junior Danielle Lao (17), freshman Sabrina Santamaria (28), and sophomore Kaitlyn Christian (72). In addition to Christian and Santamaria's doubles ranking, junior Valeria Pulido and Scandalis are ranked 54th. The Women of Troy are led by head coach Richard Gallien, who is in his 17th season at Troy and has strung together 16-straight NCAA appearances for USC, 14 years worth of consecutive top-20 finishes, eight top-10 finishes in that span, and two Trojans winning Pac-10 Singles Championship titles in the past six years.

A LOOK AT SAN DIEGO

The Toreros enter the NCAA Tournament with a 13-9 record and their first-ever West Coast Conference Championship after upsetting No. 1 seed Pepperdine. San Diego is making its 11th trip to the NCAAs and its first back-to-back trips since the 1998 and 1999 seasons. Last season, the Toreros fell in the second round to UCLA after defeating UNLV in the first round, 4-2. San Diego currently has one player ranked in the Campbell's/ITA singles rankings in sophomore Anna Dependau, who is No. 112 and boasts a record of 21-10 on the year playing primarily at No. 4. USD garnered seven All-WCC honorees with head coach Sherri Stephens earning her third career Coach of the Year award. Dependau and senior Juliette Coupez each earned spots on the All-WCC Singles First Team while Dependau and senior Maja Sujica clinched a spot on the All-WCC Doubles First Team.

A LOOK AT VANDERBILT

The Commodores enter the NCAA Tournament for the 18th consecutive season as an at-large bid after falling to Ole Miss in the Southeast Conference Tournament and finishing fifth. Vanderbilt (16-9) enters the tournament ranked 26th in the most recent ITA rankings. Two Commodores are in the top-100, senior Jackie Wu (37) and sophomore Lauren Mira (89). In addition, the two pair together to form the 26th-ranked doubles team in the nation. Last season, Vanderbilt advanced to the Sweet 16 defeating Winthrop and top-ranked Tennessee along the way. They fell to fourth-ranked North Carolina, 4-0 to end the run.

HOW THE STAGS QUALIFIED

Fairfield advanced to the NCAA Championship after making an impressive run through the MAAC Championships. The top-seeded Stags knocked off St. Peter's, 7-0, in the semifinals before downing second-seeded Marist, 4-1, in the finals. Sophomore Sharissa Ryan was named the 2012 MAAC Women's Tennis Championship Most Outstanding Performer.

NCAA HISTORY

This is the fourth trip to the NCAA Tournament for the Stags and third under head coach Ed Paige. Fairfield's first-ever back-to-back appearances came in 2009 and 2010 when the Stags faced #7 USC in Los Angeles and #8 Stanford, respectively. Fairfield's first NCAA appearance came in 2004, when they traveled to Seattle, Wash. to face fourth-seeded University of Washington.

HEAD COACH ED PAIGE

Record at Fairfield/Overall Record

80-55-1 (33-8 MAAC)

Sixth Season

Ed Paige, the two-time MAAC Coach of the Year, is in his fifth season at the helm of the men's and women's tennis programs at Fairfield.

In 2012, Paige guided the men to their fifth consecutive MAAC Championship final and the program's first Championship title since the 1997-1998 season. This season marks the first in Fairfield's history that the men have received a NCAA Tournament berth. He also led the women's team to its third MAAC Championship title in four years, the MAAC Regular Season Championship, and an undefeated conference record.

In 2011, under Paige's tutelage, the women's team went undefeated in the regular season clinching the Regular Season Conference title but dropped to Marist, 3-4, in the MAAC Championship final. Similarly, the men had a 5-1 conference record and fell to the Red Foxes in the Championship match. Paige guided numerous All-MAAC honorees, including Women's Player of the Year Monica Yajima and placing ten other student-athletes on their respective All-MAAC First and Second Teams.

In 2010, Paige guided the women's team to its second-straight MAAC Championship title, the MAAC Regular Season Championship, and a program record for victories (19) in a season. He also led the men to their third-straight appearance in the MAAC Championship final.

In Paige's first MAAC Championship season, the men's team set the program record for wins in a season (18), earned a MAAC Regular Season title, and advanced to the MAAC Championship final for the second time in as many seasons. The women's team won six of the last seven matches en route to its first MAAC Championship since 2003-04 and faced seventh-seeded USC in the NCAA Tournament. Paige was named the MAAC Coach of the Year.

Paige, who spent five seasons as an assistant coach for the Stags before accepting the position as head coach, has been involved in tennis as a player, coach and writer for over 30 years.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Paige has coached extensively at the youth level. He spent two years as the Director of Junior Tennis in the town of Fairfield, and was also an assistant coach for the boy's junior varsity tennis team at Greens Farms Academy in Westport, Conn.

Paige spent six years as an editor at World Tennis Magazine and was the editor of Tennis USA, the United States Tennis Association (USTA) official monthly newspaper. From there Paige worked at some of the top publishing companies in the country, including Paragon House, while teaching feature writing and copy editing at New York University. More recently, Paige spent two years as an editor at The Advocate, Stamford's daily newspaper followed by three years as managing editor of Westport Magazine before turning his attention to tennis full time.

Paige earned a bachelor's degree in English from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1974 and attended the Breadloaf School of English at Middlebury College in 1976 and 1977.

ASSISTANT COACH GLENN HAY

Glenn Hay is in her first season as an assistant coach. Born and raised in San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic, Hay came on scholarship to the U.S. to play tennis for Shorter University in Rome, Ga. While there, she earned her bachelor's degree in business administration, graduating in 2006.

During her four years on the team at Shorter, she was an NAIA All-American player and recognized as the best singles and doubles player at Shorter University from 2002-2006. Additional honors for Hay include the NAIA "Best Athlete to Watch" her freshman year, a 2003 Regional title, and a No. 3 ranking in singles as well as a No. 4 ranking in doubles.

Assistant Coach Hay has extensive international playing experience and was inducted into Shorter's Hall of Fame in 2011 for both her achievements as a student-athlete and her contributions on both the tennis and volleyball teams.

BEEN THERE BEFORE

Head Coach Ed Paige has been with the Stags in all four NCAA Tournament appearances. He was an assistant coach to the 2004 squad and the head coach in both 2009 and 2010. Junior Nikki Jackson is the only student-athlete on Fairfield's roster who has been to the NCAA Tournament, having faced Stanford back in 2010 in her rookie season.

TAKING HOME THE HARDWARE

The Stags have captured ten MAAC Championships – 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997, 1999, 2004, 2009, 2010, and 2012. Fairfield also captured the 2012 MAAC Regular Season Championship finishing with an undefeated 7-0 record. They've posted three-straight regular season undefeated MAAC records, winning 22 consecutive matches.

THE NOR'EASTERS

Out of the 64 teams that were chosen for the 2012 NCAA Tournament, only five – Army, Fairleigh Dickinson University, Yale, Stony Brook, and Fairfield – are from the Northeast. All five earned their place in the national tournament via automatic bids from their respective conferences.

COAST TO COAST

Including Fairfield, the NCAA sent three East Coast teams to California for the first round. Both Yale and Stony Brook University will play their first round matches at the Taube Tennis Center at Stanford University. The Bulldogs will face St. Marys (CA) while Stony Brook takes on host, #4 Stanford.

2011-2012 OPPONENTS IN TOURNAMENT

Fairfield faced players from four NCAA Tournament-bound teams this season. The Stags took on individuals from Yale and Army during the fall tournament season and faced Fairleigh Dickinson and Stony Brook in the spring season. The Stags dropped to the Knights, 1-6, in Palm Springs, Calif. and fell to the Seawolves at Stony Brook, 2-5, on March 29.

ALL-MAAC HONOREES

ROLLING ALONG

Sophomore Monica Yajima leads the team with a seven-match winning streak heading into the NCAA Tournament going 8-2 in her last ten, while Sharissa Ryan holds a six-match winning streak.

DOMINATING DOUBLES

Fairfield's doubles play has been notable throughout the 2011-12 season with three Stags finishing undefeated in conference play, Nikki Jackson, Victoria Pirrello, and Sharissa Ryan. The duo of Allison Radde and Ryan are the only undefeated pairing on the season, posting seven straight victories and clinching a spot on the Doubles All-MAAC First Team.

HOME SWEET HOME

Fairfield went 10-1 overall at home this season at both Stamford Indoor and the Walsh Athletic Center Tennis Courts. The lone loss came against Fordham indoors at Stamford.
